

Dr. Reinoehl joins OB/GYN Associates

NASSAWADOX — Eastern Shore women of all ages now have a new gynecological resource in Dr. Elizabeth Reinoehl, a welcome third physician at OB/GYN Associates in Nassawadox.

In addition to basic gynecology, Dr. Reinoehl specializes in bringing reproductive health services to teens and adolescents. With each of her patients, Dr. Reinoehl believes in treating the whole person and building a lasting relationship. That means looking into all the body functions that affect general health.

Dr. Reinoehl has earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Virginia Tech, a Masters Degree in Public Health from UNC Chapel Hill, and a Medical Degree from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. She is board-certified in both

Elizabeth Reinoehl, D.O.

Obstetrics and Gynecology. Her career has taken her from a frontier-like setting at Grand-Forks AFB in North Dakota where she served as Medical Staff Chief in a 5-bed hospital with a single general surgeon, to her most recent position as a staff physician for a women's center and the County Health Department in rural Tarboro, North Carolina.

Recent arrivals to the Eastern Shore, Dr. Reinoehl and husband, Steven McClaskey live in Belle Haven, Virginia with children Jonathan, age 13, Jacob, age 9 and Lauren, age 7. She is active in the Franktown United Methodist Church, where she is involved in the children's ministry program.

Dr. Reinoehl will begin seeing patients in the Nassawadox office beginning on September 15th and appointments are being taken now. Call 442-6719.